

Information and Application Procedures

Eligibility: Any artist or craftsman exhibiting his or her own handmade works of art is eligible. No manufactured works, no agents, and no work made by another person will be allowed. No seconds or items of inferior quality sold at a discount will be allowed. No "SALE" signs. You will be asked by a representative of the Festival to remove any part of your display that does not meet all of the above criteria. A committee comprised of members of the Mountain Artists will judge all applications. Criteria for judging include quality, salability, and uniqueness of item(s). Decisions of the jurors will be final.

Registration Requirements:

1. A registration fee of $175.00 must accompany applications for the two-day outdoor Festival, payable to Mountain Artists (check or money order). If you require electricity (very limited number of booths), please add $25 for a total of $200.00.

2. Submit three digital images in JPEG format; each file between 100-500 kb in size. Please include your name and image number in the filename with the extension ".jpg". Email your images to mtnartsfest@gmail.com. Indicate on this application the method you are using to submit the images. If you were accepted into the 2019 MAF, you do not have to resubmit your digital images if they still represent your current work. If you are planning to share a booth with another artist (2 artist limit), please submit images of both artists' work. No photos or slides, please.

3. Include a self-addressed, STAMPED envelope (SASE) for return of your acceptance letter or check if not selected.

4. Please write MAF and the name of the art medium (clay, leather, wood, painting, etc.) for which you are applying on the front lower left corner of the envelope.

5. Food Vendors may also use this application. We prefer applications from food vendors who are able to set up within a 10' x 10' area. If you require a larger space, please contact us.

Mail your application to:

Mountain Artists
PO Box 188
Woodland Park, CO 80866

Deadline: Applications must be postmarked May 1, 2020. Jurors' decisions will be made by May 15, 2020, and you will be notified shortly thereafter. If not accepted, we will return your $175.00 ($200 for electricity) check by mail.

Cancellation Policy: You may cancel your reserved booth space and request a refund of your $175.00 ($200 for electricity) entry fee before July 15, 2020. Any cancellation requests after July 15, 2020 will not receive a refund.

Booth Space: A 10' x 10' booth space is provided. All parts of your display must stay within this space. You will be asked to move your display if you set up outside the boundary of your assigned booth space. Tables must be covered with full-length cloths. All boxes, storage containers, etc. must be stowed out of sight. You must be set up by 9:30 a.m. on August 1. The Information Booth will be open at 7:30 a.m. on August 1 to answer any questions. More detailed instructions and a map of the Festival area with assigned booth spaces will be enclosed with your letter of acceptance mailed in May. You may set up Friday afternoon in your designated booth space. No switching of booth spaces will be permitted. If accepted, we reserve the right to use your digital files and photos as needed for promotional material of the Mountain Arts Festival.

Festival Hours: The Festival is open from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. on Saturday and 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. on Sunday. You may not break down your display until after 4 p.m. on Sunday. Please note the earlier ending time on Sunday.

Parking: Parking instructions for Festival participants will be given upon check-in. Close by parking is limited and reserved for your customers.

Sales Tax: Each seller must collect a total of 8.49% sales tax (4.09% city, 0.5% special, 1% county, and 2.9% state) from buyers and remit to the Festival Treasurer upon check-out Sunday. We will provide you with a form and envelope to record total sales and remit tax collected. No exceptions.

Artists' Dinner: There will be a free, special dinner for all exhibitors following the show on Saturday, August 1, 2020, beginning at 5:30 p.m. in the Cultural Center.

35th Annual Mountain Arts Festival August 1-2, 2020

Dear Friends:

The Mountain Artists invite you to apply for inclusion in our 35th Annual Mountain Arts Festival. The Festival will be held outside on the Ute Pass Cultural Center grounds in Woodland Park, Colorado.

Demonstrations by participating artists are an important feature of our Mountain Arts Festival. If you could possibly do a demonstration while selling, please indicate that on the application and call us if you have any special requirements. Artists at work always draw a crowd.

The 35th Annual Mountain Arts Festival is a juried event with a commitment to quality. We feel quality comes first so that everyone can be proud to be a participant in this event. Please read the written rules carefully. Please note the deadline of May 1, 2020 for applications. Send in your application as soon as possible so you won't miss the deadline. We ONLY accept digital images.

To help with advertising and press releases for the Mountain Arts Festival, please enclose a brochure of your work and/or a brief biography.

Silent Auction We are having a silent auction during the Festival to raise money for our student art show and scholarship. It's completely voluntary for you to donate art work for the auction.

We look forward to receiving your application and hope to see you here on August 1 and 2.
